Lunch

If you are doing a double class day you are very welcome to bring in a packed lunch or alternatively there are a few places to eat in Charlwood. The Half Moon Pub has great food and a nice garden in the summer. There is also the Charlwood Tea House and the Hungry Horse Pub.

Demonstration Days- Free

You don't get much for free in this life, apart from Crafts U Love demonstrations that is. Come along to one of our demonstrations and see the latest products and techniques demonstrated.

Tracy Squires

Tracy has been working for Crafts U Love now for over 6 months and has been crafting for a few years. Tracy's passion is rubber stamping and loves Magnolia's and Die cutting machines. She loves nothing more than spending hours on the internet looking for new stamp releases and techniques to create wonderful cards and projects.

Helen Meighan

Helen has been card making for around 12 years. She has featured in many craft publications but stepped away from this to focus on a more hands on approach. Subsequently she has been teaching & demonstrating for the last 4 years. She is the punches & peel off Queen but has recently rekindled her love of stamping. Helens classes will never cease to amaze and are really not to be missed.

Caroline Counsel (Caz)

Caroline or Stamping Caz as she is widely known is passionate about stamping but also dabbles in many other crafts, she creates cards for a selection of well known craft magazines and can truly work wonders with any stamp. She is always working on new projects and relishes the time she gets in her stamp filled craft room.

Kim Fee

Kim has been cardmaking for a number of yrs now, do a little scrapbooking, before card making she did her own ceramic's baking them in a kiln & then painting them mainly fairies and cherubs, not the pottery wheel types though. She did soft furnishings before that. Having been lucky enough she has also won a few competitions & held the Simply cards & Papercrafts Card Maker of the Year title. Basically she loves everything paper craft & die cutting.

Kim Piggott

We are pleased to have Kim demonstrating for Crafts U Love and holding classes. Kim's passion is stamping and she loves Magnolias, Sarah Kay, Whipper Snapper & Penny Black. Kim will inspire you with her unique and stunning colouring techniques using distress inks and glimmer mist.

Lindsay Mason

Lindsay is a freelance artist, designer and demonstrator and has been involved in arts and craft her whole life in one way or another. She is a designer of rubber stamps for top British company Personal Impressions. Her work is regularly featured in Making Cards magazine and her work takes her all around the country demonstrating stamping, papercrafts and general inkiness! When she is not working, she loves nothing more than nature watching, music and theatre and just relaxing at home.

Charry Wijers

Charry has years of crafting knowledge and experience on a whole range of crafts. Charry has run countless classes and workshops and we are now pleased to announce that she will be running classes at Crafts U Love
